"If I was going to kill someone, it would've been my boss. He's always harassing me for mistakes I didn't make and he's always watching me like a creep. I'm not risking my job for two people I don't even know. Now if you'll excuse me, I've been uploading documents all day and I would like to finish them. Check the timestamps if you don't believe me."

"I-I really don't know how to explain this, but I was at the baseball field that day. I, uh, went there to, um, clear my head. I'm going through a really rough time with me about to lose the house and I just wanted some space to clear my head - whack a few balls around. It was completely empty – no games or practices scheduled. I didn't expect anyone to be there, I just wanted to be alone. I don't have any, uh, proof or anything because it was so quiet and deserted. Maybe someone was around to see me. Go ask around. Please. Just my luck, I'm about to get evicted AND go to jail"

"Darnell? Yeah I knew him. He was definitely a jerk. The type to eat your lunch out of the office fridge with a stupid grin and say, 'well I didn't see your name on it.' I'm not saying work will be a better place without him, but if people were angry enough to make death threats, maybe there's a silver lining somewhere. As for my alibi? I was on my smoke break. From 5:25-5:40. Every day like clockwork. Listen, I don't need you judging me just because I smoke even though I work at a hospital. Ask any of the halal vendors. They know me."

Occupation:	Head Chef at Olive Garden
Location At Time of Crime:	Behind the Restaurant
"I've been at work all day. I'm covered in "blood" because today is the day that restaurants replace all of their old cookware to comply with health and safety regulations. Good thing too, one of my knives was so dull it didn't slice the meat and I jerked it so hard it slipped and cut my hand. In all the commotion, some new guy ended up knocking over a whole can of tomato sauce. I know I work at an Olive Garden, but I take my job very seriously and I would appreciate not having to work with teenagers just looking to make a couple of bucks. I'm sure some of this stuff is my blood, but I guarantee this is from that stupid sauce spill."

"We were there for a while, and my mate actually got stung by a jellyfish. I think we might have a few photos from the beach, but they're not exactly time-stamped. My friend can back up my story, and we did make a call to his family about the jellyfish sting, which should show up on our phone records. I know it's not perfect, but I really wasn't anywhere near the crime scene."

Oh heavens to betsy they finally got Darnell. I can't believe the Lord has sent for his child so soon. I will say he had a wicked tongue and always seemed angry. May his soul finally find peace however hot it may be. Oh me? I was working the Mother-Baby shift to take over for Alta.
